

Dear Client,

It was a pleasure speaking with you last week.

I have attached a draft of your declaration based on our interview. Please review it for accuracy, and feel free to make any edits you want. The declaration is under penalty of perjury, so it is important to avoid any errors. Let's set up another time to talk briefly to go over it. I am available _____.

Letters of support will be very helpful to your petition. You mentioned that you may be able to get them from a friend who has known you since 4th grade. I have attached a sample letter of support that you might find helpful. The most important thing is that someone knows you, can speak to the type of person and/or employee you are, and can support your request for expungement.

Please share any documents or certificates that you feel will be helpful. You can scan and e-mail the documents and send them to _____. If you don't have access to a scanner or copier we can always send you an envelope with a return label and make sure you get the originals back.

Please don't hesitate to contact me with any questions.
